Activity Report

Topic/ Subject of the Activity

Students and Parents Orientation Programme

Objectives (Input)

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of organized a two-day Students and Parents Orientation Programme on 17th and 18th July 2026 at the Swami Vivekanandha Auditorium. The programme was conducted with the objective.

1. To familiarize students and parents with academic environment and support services.
2. To create awareness of the importance of emotional intelligence, resilience, effective communication, and essential life skills.
3. To emphasize the vital role of parents in supporting, motivating, and guiding their children throughout their educational journey.To encourage students to uphold discipline, responsibility, ethical values, and lifelong learning.

Methodology (Process)

The orientation programme commenced with the Invocation, Prayer, and Tamilthai Vazhthu, creating a solemn and positive atmosphere. On Day 1 (17.07.2026), Ms. K. A. Khizra Kownain, I M.Sc. Biotechnology, delivered the welcome address and warmly greeted the gathering. Dr. M. Inbavalli, Principal, felicitated the gathering and highlighted the institution's commitment to academic excellence, discipline, value-based education, and student-centered learning. The chief guest, "Manava Rathna" Dr. K. Karthik Velu, Psychological Life Skill Development Trainer, CEO of One Life – One Chance, Life Skill Academy, Salem, was introduced by Ms. K. A. Mushfiquea Fathima, II B.Sc. Microbiology. The dignitaries on the dais honored the chief guest as a token of appreciation.

Dr. K. Karthik Velu delivered an inspiring and motivational address on the theme "Building Dreams Together – A Shared Journey of Learning and Growth." He emphasized the importance of self-confidence, emotional intelligence, positive thinking, effective communication, resilience, and life skills in achieving personal and professional success. He encouraged students to develop a growth mindset, utilize opportunities provided by the institution, and work closely with their parents and teachers to achieve their aspirations. Parents were also advised to support and motivate their children by creating a positive learning environment at home.

On Day 2 (18.07.2026), the programme continued with Prayer and Tamilthai Vazhthu, followed by the welcome address delivered by Ms. Naqiya Ibadi, III B.A. English. Dr. M. Inbavalli, Principal, once again addressed the gathering, reiterating the importance of parental involvement and student responsibility in higher education. The chief guest was introduced by Ms. B. Pritheesha, III B.Com. Computer Applications. Through interactive sessions and engaging activities conducted during both the morning and afternoon sessions, the resource person motivated students to identify their strengths, overcome challenges, manage stress effectively, and build healthy interpersonal relationships. The sessions also highlighted the significance of discipline, ethical values, leadership qualities, and lifelong learning in shaping successful careers.

The programme concluded with the Valedictory Session, during which participants shared their feedback. Students and parents appreciated the informative and motivational sessions, expressing that the programme provided clarity about college life, academic expectations, and the importance of life skills in personal development.

The Vote of Thanks was proposed by Ms. R. Ananya, II B.Sc. Nutrition and Dietetics, on Day 1 and Ms. Nafisa Fathima, III B.Sc. Biotechnology, on Day 2. The programme came to a close with the National Anthem.
