4. To develop analytical thinking, problem-solving skills, and research interest among students through academic interaction.

Summary Report

From 24.02.2026 to 27.02.2026, the PG & Research Department of Mathematics of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous) organized a four-days Student and Staff Exchange Programme. As part of the programme, Dr. R. Sathya, Head & Assistant Professor,

Department of Mathematics, Sona College of Arts and Science, served as the resource person. She handled classes on Resource Management Techniques for one unit for PG students, delivering in-depth explanations and practical insights into the subject. The sessions were highly interactive, enabling students to clarify their doubts and actively participate in discussions.

The programme significantly enhanced the conceptual understanding, analytical thinking, and subject knowledge of the students. It also promoted academic collaboration, improved teaching-learning practices, and encouraged research-oriented thinking among PG students.

From 02.03.2026 to 07.03.2026, the PG & Research Department of Mathematics of MarudharKesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous) organized a Student and Staff Exchange Programme. As part of the programme, Ms. G. Aruna and Ms. N. Mahalakshimi, Assistant Professors from the Department of Mathematics, handled classes for UG students of Sona College of Arts and Science. They taught one unit of the subject Complex Analysis, contributing to the academic enrichment of the students.

The programme provided an excellent platform for participants to broaden their academic perspectives, improve teaching and learning practices, and develop analytical and research-oriented thinking. It also fostered collaboration, mutual learning, and strengthened institutional relationships, contributing to overall academic growth.

Outcome of the Program

1. The programme enhanced the conceptual understanding of mathematical subjects among UG and PG students.
2. It improved students' analytical thinking and problem-solving skills through interactive learning sessions.
3. The initiative enriched teaching and learning practices by exposing students and faculty to different methodologies.
4. The programme strengthened academic collaboration and encouraged knowledge sharing among departments and students.
