Objectives

To encourage students and faculty to engage in reading beyond their academic syllabus and cultivate a lifelong habit of reading.

To provide a platform where a diverse range of books across various genres, languages, and disciplines is easily accessible to the college community.

To strengthen the presence of the Reader's Club within the institution and actively involve students in organizing large-scale literary events.

Summary Report

The Reader's Club & Library of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi, organized a two-day Book Fair to cultivate a culture of reading and provide students with access to a diverse range of literary resources.

The joint initiative between the Reader's Club and the College Library ensured a well-curated selection of books spanning various academic and leisure genres.

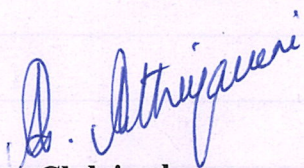

The fair provided a spacious and accessible environment for students and faculty to and interact with publishers. The Book Fair served as a significant platform for academic enrichment, successfully encouraged the student body to explore new titles and expand their personal libraries.

Outcome of the Program

1. Students are exposed to a diverse range of genres, from academic textbooks to contemporary fiction and self-help, broadening their intellectual horizons.
2. Engaging with a library-organized event helps students understand the importance of curated, credible physical resources in an increasingly digital world.
