Summary

The Human Rights Day Pledge was administered at Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous) on 10 December 2025 at 10.00 a.m. The pledge emphasized the significance of respecting and safeguarding the dignity, equality, and fundamental rights of every individual. It encouraged participants to uphold the values of justice, freedom, mutual respect, and non-discrimination irrespective of caste, creed, religion, gender, language, or nationality.

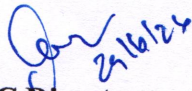

The pledge also highlighted the importance of standing against injustice and contributing towards the creation of a society where every individual can live with dignity, peace, and equal opportunities. It served as a reminder of our collective responsibility to promote and protect human rights and to foster an inclusive and harmonious community.

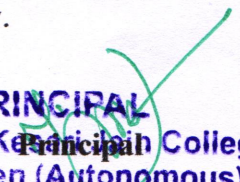

The pledge was administered by the NSS Secretary, Ms. S. Shalini. Students actively participated by raising their hands and solemnly repeating the pledge, reaffirming their commitment to upholding human rights and social justice.

Outcome of the Programme

The pledge inspired them to uphold the values of justice, freedom, mutual respect, and social harmony. The programme also encouraged participants to take an active role in promoting human rights and contributing to a more inclusive, peaceful, and equitable society.
