Summary

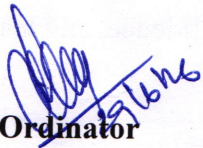

The National Service Scheme (NSS), Youth Red Cross (YRC), and Red Ribbon Club (RRC) of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women(A) jointly organized the National Youth Day Pledge Programme on 12.01.2026 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swami Vivekananda and to inspire students to uphold the values of patriotism, discipline, service, and social responsibility. Ms. S. Sowmiya administered the National Youth Day Pledge, and all the students enthusiastically repeated the pledge, reaffirming their commitment to developing strong character, serving society, respecting diversity, and contributing positively to the progress of the nation.

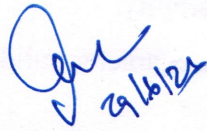

The pledge emphasized the importance of self-confidence, dedication, hard work, moral values, and active participation in community welfare activities. Students pledged to become responsible citizens and work towards building a peaceful, prosperous, and inclusive society.

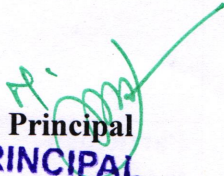

The programme created awareness among the students about their role in shaping the future of the country and motivated them to follow the ideals of Swami Vivekananda. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, and the participants expressed their commitment to translating the pledge into meaningful action in their daily lives.

Outcome of the Programme

1. Students gained awareness about the life, teachings, and contributions of Swami Vivekananda.
2. Participants reaffirmed their commitment to ethical values, discipline, and responsible citizenship through the pledge.
3. The programme strengthened students' sense of patriotism and social responsibility.
4. Students were motivated to develop leadership qualities, self-confidence, and a spirit of service.
5. The event encouraged respect for diversity, social harmony, and active participation in community development initiatives.
6. Participants understood their role in contributing to the progress and welfare of society and the nation.
