Summary

The Tamil Nadu State NSS Cell, functioning under the Directorate of Collegiate Education, participated in the prestigious Republic Day Parade 2026 held at Marina Beach. As part of this state-level celebration, universities were invited to nominate eligible National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers who demonstrated excellence in marching, discipline, and cultural activities.

Responding to this call, Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women nominated its talented volunteers. Among them, Ms. S. Shalini (II B.Sc. Biotechnology) and

Ms. S. Sowmiya (II B.Sc. Computer Science) were selected to represent the institution at the Republic Day Parade held on 26 January 2026.

Prior to the main event, the selected volunteers underwent rigorous and specialized marching training at VIT, Chennai. The training focused on enhancing their coordination, discipline, endurance, and parade presentation skills, ensuring they met the high standards required for such a prestigious occasion.

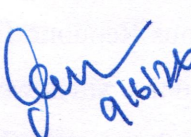

On the day of the parade, both volunteers performed with great dedication and precision at Marina, Chennai, contributing to the grandeur of the Republic Day celebrations. Their commendable performance earned them certificates and shields as tokens of appreciation and recognition.

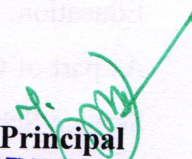

This remarkable achievement brought immense pride and honour to the institution, highlighting the commitment, discipline, and talent of its NSS volunteers. It also reflects the college's continuous efforts in encouraging students to actively participate in national-level events and develop leadership and service-oriented values.

Outcome of the Programme

1. Successful participation of students in the prestigious Republic Day Parade 2026, enhancing the institution's visibility at the state level.
2. Improved marching skills, discipline, coordination, and physical endurance of the selected NSS volunteers through intensive training.
3. Development of leadership qualities, confidence, and a strong sense of responsibility among the participants.
4. Recognition in the form of certificates and shields, appreciating the volunteers' dedication and performance.
5. Strengthened reputation of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women as an institution that promotes student excellence in co-curricular and national activities.
6. Increased motivation among other students to actively participate in NSS and similar national-level programs.
7. Promotion of patriotism, teamwork, and service-minded values among students.
