Summary Report

The School of Creative Arts and Language, Department of Costume Design and Fashion Technology, successfully organized “Tarang”, an interdepartmental competition, in commemoration of World Saree Day on 22 December 2025. The event aimed to celebrate the rich heritage of Indian sarees while promoting student participation and cultural appreciation.

World Saree Day is celebrated to honor the timeless elegance, cultural heritage, and versatility of the Indian saree. Observed annually, it highlights the saree as a symbol of tradition, craftsmanship, and regional diversity, representing centuries-old weaving techniques and cultural identity. The day encourages appreciation of handlooms, indigenous textiles, and sustainable fashion while inspiring younger generations to preserve and promote India’s rich textile legacy.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from students representing various departments of the institution. A series of competitions were organized to engage participants intellectually and creatively. The events included Poster Presentation, Quiz, Saree Draping, and a special faculty event titled “Professor Fichu”, which added a vibrant and entertaining dimension to the celebration.

The Poster Presentation competition showcased students’ creativity and understanding of saree traditions, regional varieties, and contemporary relevance. The Quiz competition tested participants’ knowledge of textile history, weaving techniques, and cultural aspects of sarees. The Saree Draping event highlighted practical skills, aesthetic sense, and traditional draping styles. A special attraction of the event was the faculty competition “Professor Fichu”, which encouraged faculty members to participate actively, fostering a joyful atmosphere and strengthening student–faculty rapport. The event was conducted smoothly with active coordination by the organizing team and volunteers.
