Summary Report

School of Commerce organized Competition Programme on Comm – Unique 2.0. This “Comm – Unique 2.0” competition was organized to encourage students to showcase their talents, creativity, and knowledge in the field of commerce. Our department conduct various events such as Adzap, Poster Presentation, Business Quiz, PPT Presentation, Just a Minute (JAM), Connection, Dance, and Corporate Walk were conducted. In Adzap, students creatively advertised products, while Poster Presentation allowed them to express ideas through visual designs. The Business Quiz tested students’ knowledge of commerce and current business affairs. PPT Presentation helped participants present topics using slides and improve their communication skills. The JAM event encouraged students to speak confidently on given topics, and the Connection game developed logical thinking and teamwork. Dance provided a platform for students to showcase their artistic talents, and the Corporate Walk helped participants present themselves confidently in a professional manner. Acharya Bangalore B-School (A) Bangalore University won the Overall Championship, bringing pride and recognition to the institution. Overall, the competition was engaging and helped students improve their knowledge, creativity, confidence, and presentation skills.

Outcome of the Program

1. Students from various colleges actively participated in the competitions.
2. The events improved students' creativity, knowledge, and confidence.
3. Healthy competition and interaction among participants were encouraged.
4. Winners were awarded prizes and certificates for their achievements.
