Summary Report

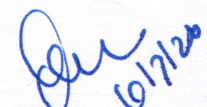

The National Service Scheme (NSS), YRC & RRC of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi organized a World Elder Abuse Awareness Day Programme to create awareness about the rights, dignity, and well-being of senior citizens and to promote respect and care for the elderly in society.

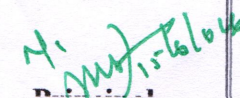

During the programme, students, faculty members, and staff participated in an Elder Abuse Awareness Pledge, affirming their commitment to treat elderly individuals with respect, prevent all forms of abuse and neglect, and support initiatives that ensure their safety, health, and dignity. The pledge highlighted the importance of fostering compassion, understanding, and responsibility towards senior citizens within families and communities.

The event served as an effective awareness initiative, sensitizing participants to the challenges faced by older adults and encouraging them to contribute towards creating an age-friendly and inclusive society. The programme reinforced the significance of protecting the rights of the elderly and promoting their well-being through collective action and social responsibility.
