Summary

The NCC awareness program for undergraduate students was successfully conducted, with students showing keen interest in joining NCC. The program highlighted NCC's objectives, including developing leadership skills, qualities, and attributes in cadets, participating in community service and social welfare activities, and providing opportunities for cadets to learn new skills, gain certifications, and enhance their career prospects. He spoke the importance of discipline, punctuality, and leadership skills, and discussed the NCC examination, camps, and encouraged students to participate in social welfare activities, fostering a sense of responsibility towards the community. The program provided a platform for students to learn about NCC and its benefits, inspiring them to become part of the organization.

Outcome of the Programme

1. Improved employability and career prospects for NCC cadets
2. Students are better prepared for the NCC selection process
3. Improved understanding of the NCC selection process and criteria among students, clarifying the requirements and expectations for joining the organization
