Objectives

The objective was to create awareness about the significance of the girl child and encouraged students to express their views on women's rights and empowerment through art and literature.

Summary Report

The Sevottam Club of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi organized a series of competitions on 24th January 2026 in observance of National Girl Child Day. The event aimed to create awareness among students about the importance of the girl child and to promote values of equality, empowerment, education, and rights. The programme followed the Sustainable Development Goals of the United Nations particularly SDG 4 – Quality Education, SDG 5 – Gender Equality, and SDG 10 – Reduced Inequalities. The competitions were conducted from 1.30 p.m. to 3.00 p.m. at Guru Mishri Block. Students from various departments enthusiastically participated in the competitions. The following competitions were organized based on socially relevant themes:

Poster Making

Theme: Her Dreams, Her Rights, Her Future

Participants created posters at the venue within the stipulated time. They were asked to give a 3-minute presentation explaining their posters and ideas related to the theme.

Essay Writing (Tamil & English)

Theme: The Girl Child – Rights, Equality and Empowerment

Students wrote essays individually in either Tamil or English. The content was expected to be original, meaningful, and relevant to the theme. The essays reflected strong awareness about social issues, education of the girl child, gender equality, and empowerment.

Poem Writing

Theme: Let Her Learn, Let Her Lead

Participants composed original poems individually. The poems beautifully expressed the importance of educating and empowering girls and highlighted their role in nation-building.

Outcome of the Program

- Created awareness about the rights, equality and empowerment of the girl child.
- Enhanced students critical thinking, communication and presentation skills.
- Sensitized students towards gender equality and social responsibility.
