Input

The Faculty Induction Programme was organized with the objective of orienting newly appointed faculty members towards the institution's vision, mission, academic framework, administrative policies, quality practices, and student support systems. The programme was also designed to strengthen faculty competencies in teaching pedagogy, Outcome Based Education (OBE), research and innovation, emotional intelligence, teamwork, Learning Management System (LMS) usage, and contemporary academic practices.

Resource persons included institutional administrators, academic leaders, IQAC representatives, research experts, and support service coordinators. Structured sessions, interactive discussions, demonstrations, and campus familiarization activities were planned over five days to ensure comprehensive professional integration.

Process

Day 1 – 11.05.2026

The programme commenced with sessions on “Institutional History, Vision & Mission, Values and Self Appraisal” by Dr. M. Inbavalli, Principal, and “Administrative Policies & Protocol” by Ms. B. Sakthimala, CAO. The sessions introduced faculty members to the institution’s values, ethics, administrative procedures, and professional responsibilities.

Day 2 – 12.05.2026

Dr. M. Srinivasan, COE, delivered a session on the “Autonomous Academic System: COE Functions and Curriculum Framework,” explaining curriculum planning and assessment practices. Dr. D. Vetrivelan, Vice Principal, conducted a session on “Effective Teaching Pedagogy,” focusing on innovative teaching methods. A campus tour was also organized for the participants to get familiarized with the campus.

Day 3 – 13.05.2026

Dr. T. Balasubramanian, Academic Advisor, handled a session on “LMS/Higarde Online Documentation & Self Motivation,” emphasizing digital documentation and self-development. Dr. D. Vetrivelan conducted another session on “Emotional Intelligence & Team Work,” highlighting interpersonal and collaborative skills.

Day 4 – 14.05.2026

Dr. V. Magendira Mani, IQAC Director, delivered a session on “Institutional Quality Practices and Academic Expectations,” focusing on quality assurance and academic standards. Ms. C.B. Sumathi, Dean of Physical Sciences, presented the “Student Support System,” explaining mentoring and student welfare initiatives.

Day 5 – 15.05.2026

Dr. J. Jesu Jaya Sudan, Associate Dean Research, delivered a session on “Building Excellence in Research & Innovation from ‘Idea to Impact,’” encouraging research culture among faculty. Dr. H. Lookman Sithic, Vice Principal, explained “Outcome Based Education & Teaching Tools.” The programme concluded with a session on Library Support Systems explained by Mr. M. Dinakaran.

Output

- Newly appointed faculty members were oriented towards institutional policies, procedures, and academic culture.
- Participants gained awareness of autonomous academic practices, curriculum framework, assessment systems, and quality assurance processes.
- Faculty members were introduced to innovative teaching methodologies, LMS platforms, and OBE practices.
- Awareness regarding research opportunities, innovation culture, mentoring systems, and student support services was enhanced.
- Improved interaction and collaboration among newly recruited faculty members and institutional leadership were established.

Outcome

- Participants developed a clear understanding of the institutional vision, mission, values, and academic expectations.
- Faculty members acquired competencies in learner-centered teaching pedagogy, OBE implementation, and digital academic documentation.
- Participants enhanced their skills in teamwork, emotional intelligence, communication, and professional ethics.
- Faculty members became capable of utilizing institutional support systems, research facilities, and quality practices effectively in their academic responsibilities.
- Increased preparedness among faculty members to contribute towards student learning outcomes and institutional excellence was achieved.
