Activity Report

Topic/ Subject of the Activity: Alumni Seminar on Insights into Modern Interior Design

Objectives (Input):

- To provide students with an understanding of modern interior design concepts and emerging industry trends.
- To expose students to career opportunities in the field of interior design through alumni interaction.
- To bridge the gap between academic learning and professional practice.

Methodology (Process):

An alumni seminar was organized where the resource person delivered an interactive presentation on modern interior design. Ms. Mubashira Aafreen, Senior Influencer Marketing Executive, Pantech Marketing Services, Singapore was invited as guest speaker. The session covered contemporary design principles, sustainable materials, space planning, digital design tools, and career prospects. Students actively participated through discussions and a question-and-answer session.

Output

Students gained knowledge of current interior design trends and industry expectations. They interacted with the alumna, clarified career-related queries, and developed a better understanding of the profession.

Outcomes

1. Enhanced awareness of modern interior design practices and career opportunities.
2. Improved motivation among students to pursue skill development and higher studies in the field.
3. Strengthened alumni–student engagement and industry-academia connection.
