Summary

The Department of Costume Design and Fashion Technology at Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous) proudly organized RAGE WALK '25 - Fashion Portfolio Presentation. The event served as a dynamic platform for students to display their creativity, innovation, and design expertise through carefully curated fashion portfolios. These presentations reflected the skills and knowledge gained throughout their academic journey, encompassing design concepts, fabric selections, illustrations, and technical specifications. The session witnessed enthusiastic participation and a vibrant display of unique fashion narratives. Faculty members, students, and invited guests appreciated the originality and professional quality of the work presented. The event not only celebrated the talent of the budding designers but also reinforced the department's commitment to excellence in fashion education. RAGE WALK '25 concluded on a high note, leaving the audience inspired and the participants motivated to continue their creative pursuits in the fashion industry.
