Activity Report

Topic/ Subject of the Activity: Onam Carnival 2K26

Objectives (Input)

- To celebrate the cultural spirit and traditional values associated with Onam.
- To create awareness and appreciation of Kerala's art, food, traditions and cultural heritage.
- To provide students with opportunities to express creativity through art, decoration, culinary presentation and fashion.
- To encourage participation, teamwork and cultural interaction among students.

Methodology (Process)

The Department of Interior Design & Decor, celebrated Onam Carnival 2K26 at the MKJC premises on 27.08.2026 at 9.30 a.m. The celebration was structured around theme-based competitions inspired by Kerala's traditions. The competitions included:

- Face Painting – Faces of Kerala
- Flower Carpet – Blooms of Tradition
- Mural Painting – Stories of Kerala
- Sadya Plating – A Feast for the Eyes
- Flower Garland Making – Garland of Grace
- Fashion Walk (Solo) – Tradition Meets Trend

Output

A themed Onam Carnival was conducted with six creative and cultural competitions, providing a platform for students to showcase artistic skills, traditional knowledge, and creativity and presentation abilities. It covers SDG 4 – Quality Education, SDG 11 – Sustainable Cities and Communities and SDG 17 – Partnerships for the Goals.

Outcomes

- Enhanced appreciation of Kerala's cultural traditions and Onam celebrations.
- Encouraged creativity, aesthetic sense and innovative presentation.
- Promoted teamwork, participation and confidence through competition-based activities.
- Provided students with practical exposure to cultural styling, visual presentation and traditional themes.
