Summary

Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi, celebrated the 150th Anniversary of the National Song "Vande Mataram" with great patriotic fervor and enthusiasm, in accordance with the directions of the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE). The celebration commenced with the mass singing of the full version of "Vande Mataram" by faculty members and students, showcasing unity and reverence for the nation. The event featured a mass singing of the full version of "Vande Mataram" by 200 students. The Vice- Principal of the College Dr. D. Vetrivelan addressed the gathering, highlighting the historical and cultural significance of "Vande Mataram" and its role in igniting India's freedom movement and fostering national identity. The event was coordinated by the IQAC in collaboration with all NCC, NSS of the institution. The program concluded with a sense of patriotism and collective pride, reinforcing the message of unity and respect for India's cultural heritage. All students and faculty members are encouraged to record "Vande Mataram" in their own voices and upload it under the initiative "Karaoke with Vande Mataram" on the campaign portal: <https://vandemataram150.in>.

Outcome of the Programme

1. Students gained a deeper understanding of the national song "Vande Mataram" and its cultural significance.
2. The mass singing event fostered a sense of unity and patriotism among the participating students.
3. The speech helped students appreciate the historical context and importance of "Vande Mataram".
