Activity Report

Name of the Activity : Parent–Teacher Association (PTA) Meeting.
Date: 29 August 2026
Time: 9:30 a.m.
Venue: Marudhar Kesari Jain College

Input

- To strengthen the relationship and communication among parents, teachers and the institution.
- To discuss students' academic performance, attendance, discipline and overall development.
- To identify students' academic needs and provide suitable guidance and support.
- To encourage regular attendance, effective study habits and responsible behaviour among students.
- To motivate students to participate actively in co-curricular and extracurricular activities.
- To provide parents with information regarding examination preparation, academic expectations and institutional activities.
- To encourage parents to work collaboratively with teachers for the continuous improvement of students.

Process

- The Parent–Teacher Association Meeting was organized on 29 August 2026 at 9:30 a.m. at Marudhar Kesari Jain College. The meeting was conducted to establish effective communication between parents, teachers and the institution and to review the academic and overall progress of students. The programme provided an opportunity for parents to interact directly with the faculty members and understand their wards' academic performance, attendance, discipline and participation in various activities.
- The Principal addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of a strong partnership between parents and the institution. The Principal highlighted the role of parents in motivating students, monitoring their academic progress and encouraging regular attendance and disciplined study habits. Guidance was also shared on supporting students during examinations and helping them maintain a balanced approach towards academics and co-curricular activities.
- The Vice Principal interacted with the parents and provided guidance regarding students' academic responsibilities, attendance and examination preparation. The importance of punctuality, regular classroom participation and consistent academic practice was explained. Parents were encouraged to maintain regular communication with teachers and to approach the institution whenever academic or other student-related concerns required attention.
- Teachers discussed the progress of individual students and shared observations regarding their learning, classroom participation, attendance and discipline. Parents were given an opportunity to express their views, clarify doubts and share suggestions. The interaction helped in identifying areas that require further attention and in planning appropriate academic support for students.

- ❖ The meeting concluded with a mutual understanding that continuous cooperation between parents, teachers and the institution is essential for students' academic achievement, personal development and responsible participation in college life.

Key Areas Discussed

- Academic performance and progress of students.
- Regular attendance and punctuality.
- Classroom participation and learning habits.
- Discipline, conduct and responsible behaviour.
- Preparation for internal examinations, model examinations and university examinations.
- Participation in co-curricular and extracurricular activities.
- Importance of maintaining communication between parents and teachers.
- Need for timely academic guidance and support wherever required.

Output

- The meeting strengthened communication and cooperation between parents, teachers and the institution.Parents gained a clearer understanding of students' academic progress, attendance and overall development.
- The Principal and Vice Principal provided valuable guidance on academic responsibilities, attendance and examination preparation.
- Parents received suggestions for supporting students' study habits, discipline and participation in college activities.
- Teachers and parents discussed areas requiring attention and possible measures for improvement.
- The meeting encouraged continued parent–teacher communication for effective student support.
- The programme promoted a collaborative approach towards students' academic and personal development.

Outcome

The Parent–Teacher Association Meeting served as a meaningful platform for interaction among parents, teachers and the institution. The guidance provided by the Principal and Vice Principal, along with the discussions with teachers and parents, helped to promote a shared understanding of students' academic and developmental needs. The meeting reinforced the importance of continuous cooperation, regular communication and collective support for the successful progress of students.
