Summary

The Department-Wise Farewell Day was joyfully celebrated on 9th April 2024. The event was organized to bid a heartfelt farewell to the outgoing batch of final-year students across all departments. The event was lovingly organized by junior students to bid a warm and memorable farewell to the outgoing seniors of all departments.

The day was filled with emotions, nostalgia, and celebration as students, faculty, and staff came together to honor the journey of the graduating students. The farewell program began with a formal welcome address followed by cultural performances that lit up the atmosphere. The entire program reflected the strong bond between students and their college. It was a perfect blend of celebration and reflection, leaving everyone with lasting memories.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks, followed by group photos and refreshments, marking a beautiful end to a significant chapter in the lives of the final-year students.

Outcomes

1. Positive emotional connection among students and faculty was strengthened.
2. Juniors gained inspiration from the experiences shared by their seniors.
