Summary

The event commenced with a warm welcome address by Dr. C. Deepa, Head of the Department of English, followed by introductory remarks from Dr. A. Sumyirra, Dean, School of Creative Arts and Languages. Dr. M. Inbavalli, Principal, conveyed her best wishes for the programme's success and appreciated the department's efforts in engaging alumni for academic enrichment.

The session was graced by the Chief Guest, Ms. M. Sindhu Priya, HR & Admin Manager (Project Cost Consultant) at SR Scaffold Engineering, Singapore, and a distinguished alumna of the department. She shared her valuable insights on how literature serves as a powerful medium to reflect, analyze, and uphold human values in a rapidly changing world. Her talk bridged academic perspectives with practical applications, inspiring both faculty and students.

The interactive session allowed students to ask questions and reflect on the role of literature in fostering empathy, ethics, and cultural understanding. The webinar concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the Chief Guest, management, and participants for making the event meaningful and memorable.

Outcome of the Programme

1. Students gained deeper insights into the role of literature in examining and upholding human values.
2. Alumni engagement enhanced the academic culture and provided real-world perspectives.
3. Participants were inspired to apply literary values—such as empathy, compassion, and Integrity in their personal and professional lives.
4. The event strengthened institutional pride and alumni-student bonding.
5. The programme successfully promoted the integration of humanistic values into academic Learning.
