- To promote relaxation and work-life balance.
- To encourage participation in cultural and recreational activities.
- To enhance morale and create joyful shared memories.

Summary Report

Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women organized a two-day Staff Tour & Staff Fest at the scenic hill station of Yelagiri on 29th and 30th December 2025. The event was planned as a staff welfare initiative to provide faculty members with an opportunity to relax, connect beyond academic roles, and celebrate together in a joyful environment.

Day I – Staff Tour

The first day began with a spiritually refreshing visit to the Lord Murugan Temple followed by the Lord Sivan Temple, setting a peaceful tone for the tour. Faculty members then visited Fundera Park, where they enjoyed sightseeing and informal interactions. After lunch at AGS Wonderland, the group proceeded to the Yelagiri Boat House, where boating and scenic views created a lively and cheerful atmosphere.

By evening, the participants checked in at Rhythms Lake View Resort. The highlight of the night was a vibrant campfire session filled with music, games, laughter, and spontaneous performances. Faculty members enthusiastically participated in activities, strengthening bonds and rediscovering their playful side. A shared dinner concluded the day with warmth and togetherness.

Day II – Staff Fest

The second day marked the beginning of the Staff Fest, inaugurated with a prayer song and a traditional tribal welcome dance that energized the gathering. The welcome address by Dr. M. Inbavalli, Principal, and the felicitation address by Dr. T. Balasubramanian, Academic Advisor, emphasized the importance of unity, celebration, and staff well-being.

The day unfolded with a series of lively competitions including singing, dance, fun quiz, fashion parade, and recreational games. Faculty members from different departments showcased hidden talents, creativity, humor, and sporting spirit. The post-lunch sessions continued with energetic participation, turning the resort into a vibrant stage of celebration.

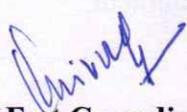

The valedictory ceremony featured prize distribution and a heartfelt vote of thanks. The programme concluded with a joyful New Year cake-cutting celebration, symbolizing hope and positivity for the coming year. The event ended with tea and departure, leaving participants refreshed, connected, and filled with cherished memories.

Outcome of the Programme

- Strengthened interpersonal relationships among faculty and staff.
- Fostered teamwork and institutional bonding.
- Enhanced morale and emotional well-being.
- Encouraged cultural expression and participation.
- Created a positive, joyful, and collaborative work culture..
