Summary Report

The National Service Scheme (NSS) of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi organized a Plant Saplings Donation Programme on 05.06.2026 in observance of World Environment Day. As part of the initiative, plant saplings were distributed to the parents visiting the college for their daughters' admission and to the teaching and non-teaching staff to promote environmental conservation and encourage tree plantation. To create awareness about the importance of a greener future, parents and staff participated in a Palm Impression Activity, symbolizing their commitment to protecting the environment. The programme was aligned with the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and successfully promoted environmental responsibility and sustainable practices among the participants.

Participants Count: 80 Faculty: 30 Students: 30 Parents: 20

Learning Outcome of the Program

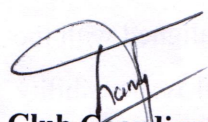

- Participants gained awareness about the importance of environmental conservation and sustainable living.
- Parents and staff understood the significance of tree plantation in maintaining ecological balance. The sapling distribution initiative encouraged individuals to actively participate in creating a greener environment.
- The Palm Impression Activity inspired participants to take a symbolic pledge towards protecting and preserving nature.

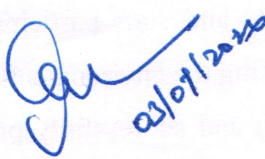

SDG Alignment

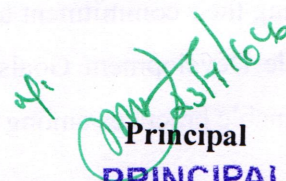

The programme contributed to the following United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs):

- SDG 13 – Climate Action: Promoted tree plantation and environmental awareness to support climate action.
- SDG 15 – Life on Land: Encouraged biodiversity conservation through the planting and protection of trees.
- SDG 11 – Sustainable Cities and Communities: Fostered greener and healthier communities by increasing environmental awareness.
- SDG 4 – Quality Education: Enhanced environmental knowledge and promoted sustainable living practices among students, parents, and faculty.
- SDG 17 – Partnerships for the Goals: Strengthened collaboration between the NSS Unit, students, faculty, and parents in promoting environmental sustainability.

Overall, the programme promoted environmental responsibility, community participation, and sustainable practices, contributing towards the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals.
