Summary

The department-wise Farewell Day celebration was conducted on 24.03.2026. The event was arranged to bid a warm and memorable farewell to the final-year students.

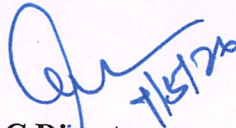

The program was filled with heartfelt moments and active participation from both junior and senior students. Junior students expressed their affection and gratitude by arranging snacks and presenting gifts to their seniors as a token of remembrance. Final-year students shared their experiences, reflecting on their journey, achievements, challenges, and memorable moments throughout their college life.

Faculty members also addressed the gathering and offered valuable advice, encouraging students to become independent, responsible, and confident individuals as they step into the next phase of their lives. The event concluded a joyful and emotional note, strengthening the bond between students and staff.

Outcome of the Programme

1. Final-year students felt appreciated, valued, and emotionally connected to their institution.
2. Students gained motivation and confidence to face future challenges independently.
