Summary

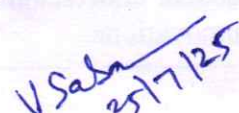

The program commenced with a finely tuned prayer song, followed by Tamilthai Vazhthu, presented by P. Dhannusri, J. Swetha Shree, and K. Jeevitha of III BBA. This initiated the program in a traditional way. Ms. S. Sai Nandhitha, III BBA, MKJC, delivered the Welcome Address. Dr. M. Inbavalli, Principal, MKJC, offered Felicitation. Ms.B.Saniya Arfa, III BBA, MKJC, introduced the Resource Person. Dr.V.Sabari, Research Co-Ordinator & Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, honored the Resource Person. Ms.O.Afi Nabaaha, III BBA, MKJC, delivered the Resource Person Address. The workshop, "Innovate & Protect: A Workshop on Patent Filing," was successfully organized to foster a culture of innovation and protection of intellectual property. The session was led by the resource person, Ms.B.Sakthimala, Assistant Professor from the PG and Research Department of Business Administration. She delivered a comprehensive lecture on the significance of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), focusing on the nuances of the patenting process. Specific topics included identifying patentable inventions, conducting prior art searches, drafting a patent application, and the procedures for filing. The session was highly interactive, allowing students and faculty members to engage with the expert and clarify their queries regarding protecting their innovative ideas and research work. The participants provided valuable feedback, highlighting the clarity and usefulness of the information shared. The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Ms.K.Saara Danish, III BBA, MKJC, followed by the National Anthem.

Programme Outcome

The students learned about

1. The fundamental concepts of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and the importance of patenting.
2. The step-by-step process and practical requirements for filing a patent in India.
3. How to protect their innovative projects and research outcomes from infringement.
