Summary

The Faculty Development Programme titled "Enhancing Academic Delivery through LMS and Hi-Grade Software" was successfully conducted to empower educators with essential technological skills for modern academic delivery. The event witnessed active participation of all the faculty members across various disciplines.

The primary objective of the programme was to familiarize educators with the effective use of Learning Management Systems (LMS) and Hi-Grade software, ensuring seamless integration of technology into their pedagogical practices. The programme also aimed to enhance their capability to design engaging online content and develop efficient assessment methodologies.

Outcome of the Programme

- Faculty members will demonstrate the ability to create, deliver, and manage online and hybrid learning sessions using Hi-Grade software.
- Participants will be able to design and administer digital assessments, analyze student performance data, and implement feedback-driven improvements in teaching.
